Legal eagles go for federal form of gov't

By N. S. Sison
A COMMITTEE OF LEGAL EAGLES, including the Philippine Bar Association, is pushing for a federal form of government in the Philippines. The committee, headed by Justice Antonio Carpio, is part of a larger group of legal experts who are studying the possibility of a federal system for the Philippines. The committee's report is expected to be released in the coming months. The report will discuss the advantages and disadvantages of a federal system and will recommend a form of government that is best suited to the Philippines. The committee's report is expected to be a landmark document in the history of Philippine politics.

Lexus CT200h Launches in Japan

LAST JANUARY, Lexus launched the world's first luxury full hybrid compact car, the 2011 CT200h, in its home country, Japan. Having welcomed the brand only last year, Japan is one of the first countries in the world to offer premium hybrid vehicles.

The four-wheel drive CT200h is powered by an innovative 2.5-liter Atkinson-cycle combustion engine, designed specifically for hybrid vehicles. The engine is coupled with the standard Direct, allowing the CT200h to top its class in fuel efficiency, in terms of a rating of 34.7km/l in the 10-15 km cycle, defined by the Japanese Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism (MLIT). While MLIT testing is very generous, the US Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) estimate puts the hybrid at around 38km/l, in combined city and highway driving.

The star feature of the Lexus CT200h is the Dual Mode-driving system that enables the hybrid to switch between economical, performance and electric modes.

"The difference is huge," declares Colin Chapman, Lexus Marketing Officer. "You really feel the change in the way the car performs. It goes from a quiet delivery to faster and steering is given more weight and feel. But thanks to the other hand, doesn't a switch drive that really gives the best of both worlds?"

With an extremely rigid state-of-the-art chassis design and a newly developed suspension system, the CT200h provides an exhilarating drive that does not compromise environmental friendliness.

In addition to the standard CT200h, Lexus also introduced a P-Sport variant, equipped with performance changes that increase the rigidity of the suspension system, without compromising Lexus Signature luxury.

Lexus expects to sell 1000 units of the new luxury hybrid vehicles, in Japan, in 2011.

Originally designed for European markets, the CT200h will be made available in North America and China, later in the year. The local subsidiary, Lexus Motor, meanwhile, is expecting delivery of the dedicated hybrid version February.

Interested customers can contact Lexus Motor at 03-6325-0220 for a closer viewing of the CT200h luxury hybrid, located in official Lexus stores on the 21st of February.

PH granted $20M for anti-AIDS drive

By Juvie B. Lumbagui

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — The Philippine government has approved a $20-million grant from the United States to help fund a nationwide anti-AIDS campaign. The grant, which is part of a larger $100-million package, will be used to support various activities including public education, testing, and treatment. The Department of Health announced the approval on Monday. The grant is expected to be disbursed over the next few months. The campaign aims to reduce the spread of HIV and AIDS, which has become a significant public health concern in the Philippines. The grant will also support the development of local capacity to manage the epidemic.

P-Noy orders crackdown China lets PH make plea

By Heron Bana
MANILA, Philippines — President Benigno Aquino III has ordered a crackdown on illegal drug syndicates, saying the government will not tolerate the trade. The president's order, issued on Tuesday, calls for a "zero-tolerance" policy against drug trafficking and consumption. It also directs the Department of Justice to conduct a "thorough investigation" into the alleged involvement of government officials in the drug trade. The order comes as the Philippines continues to grapple with a growing drug problem, with thousands of people dying from drug-related causes each year. The president's order is seen as a strong signal that the government is committed to eradicating the drug trade, regardless of the political cost.

Manila's law loosely
The Philippines' drug laws are considered weak and outdated, with many critics arguing that they do not provide for adequate penalties for drug trafficking. The current laws, which date back to the 1970s, prescribe fines and imprisonment for drug offenses, but do not include the death penalty. This has led to a perception that the government is not serious about cracking down on the drug trade. However, the president's new order may signal a shift in the government's approach to drug enforcement.

Agencies are expected
The president's order is expected to be implemented by the relevant government agencies, including the Department of Justice, the Philippine National Police, and the Bureau of Customs. The order also calls for the establishment of a "drug enforcement task force" to coordinate the government's efforts to combat drug trafficking. The task force is expected to be headed by the president's chief of staff.

Obama ordered secret report on Arab unrest

WASHINGTON, May 13 (AP) — President Barack Obama has ordered a secret report on the Arab Spring unrest, a move that could lead to a more aggressive U.S. role in the region, according to a senior administration official.

The official said the report, which is being prepared by a group of experts, will focus on the causes of the unrest and the potential for a more aggressive U.S. role in the region. The report is expected to be completed by the end of the month.

The official said the report will be a "top secret" document, and that it will be used to guide U.S. policy in the region. The official said the report will be a "top secret" document, and that it will be used to guide U.S. policy in the region.

Cavaliers stop shaky Lakers

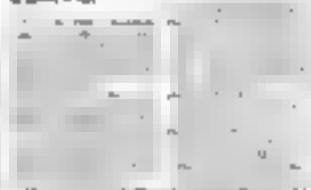

The Cleveland Cavaliers defeated the Los Angeles Lakers 101-90 on Sunday night, ending a four-game losing streak for the Lakers. The Cavaliers' victory was powered by a strong performance from LeBron James, who scored 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds. The Lakers, on the other hand, struggled offensively, particularly in the second half. The game was a tactical battle between coach Mike Brown and coach Phil Jackson. The Cavaliers' defense was key in limiting the Lakers' scoring opportunities. The win gives the Cavaliers a 2-1 record in their recent games, while the Lakers' record stands at 1-2.

Pacquiao, without doubt, hero of our time

Manny Pacquiao, without doubt, is the hero of our time. He has inspired millions of Filipinos with his incredible fighting spirit and determination. His victory over Oscar De La Hoya in 2008 was a historic moment for the Philippines. Pacquiao's success has shown that a person from a developing country can achieve greatness in a highly competitive sport. He is a role model for young people, teaching them the value of hard work and perseverance. His journey from a poor childhood to becoming a world champion is a testament to the power of the human spirit.

Pacquiao's success has also brought international attention to the Philippines. His fights are watched by millions of people around the world, and he has become a global star. This has helped to boost the country's profile and economy. Pacquiao's achievements are a source of pride for the Filipino people, and his story is a source of inspiration for many. He has shown that with enough talent and hard work, anything is possible. His legacy will live on for generations to come.

Figure 1 is a schematic diagram of the experimental setup. It shows a participant sitting at a table, viewing a video screen. The screen displays a target (a small circle) and a starting point (a larger circle). The participant's hand is positioned at the starting point. The distance between the starting point and the target is labeled as 'D'. The participant's hand is labeled 'Hand' and the target is labeled 'Target'.

Figure 1 is a schematic representation of the experimental design. It shows a sequence of three boxes connected by arrows. The first box is labeled 'Stimulus' and contains the word 'cat'. The second box is labeled 'Response' and contains the word 'cat'. The third box is labeled 'Feedback' and contains the word 'cat'. The sequence is labeled 'Stimulus', 'Response', and 'Feedback'.

Figure 1 illustrates the experimental setup. A participant is seated at a table, looking at a video screen. On the screen, a target (small circle) and a starting point (large circle) are visible. The distance between them is 10 cm. The participant's hand is at the starting point. The setup includes a video camera above the screen, connected to a computer system.

Figure 1 is a schematic representation of the experimental design. It shows a sequence of three main phases: Pretest, Training, and Transfer. Each phase is represented by a box. The Pretest phase is divided into 'Pretest' and 'Posttest' sub-phases. The Training phase is divided into 'Training' and 'Posttest' sub-phases. The Transfer phase is divided into 'Transfer' and 'Posttest' sub-phases. Arrows indicate the flow from Pretest to Training to Transfer. A legend indicates that 'Pretest' and 'Posttest' are represented by boxes with a diagonal line, and 'Training' and 'Transfer' are represented by boxes with a horizontal line.

Tea, rose pink, mauve —Elie Saab's spring bouquet

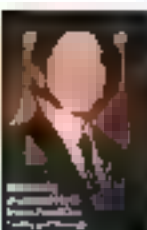

By Top of Florida

Elie Saab's spring collection is a beautiful bouquet of tea, rose pink, and mauve. The designs are elegant and sophisticated, with a focus on long, flowing dresses. The collection is a perfect example of Saab's signature style, which is a blend of classic and contemporary fashion.

With its soft, romantic palette, the collection is perfect for the spring season. The designs are elegant and sophisticated, with a focus on long, flowing dresses. The collection is a perfect example of Saab's signature style, which is a blend of classic and contemporary fashion.

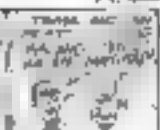

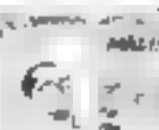

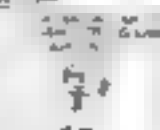

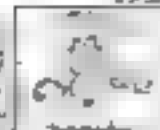

Dresses in tea, rose pink, and mauve by Elie Saab

Post-Ping Lacson era: vain men market

The fashion industry has seen a significant shift in the post-Ping Lacson era. The market has become more focused on the vain men market, with designers creating more tailored and sophisticated clothing. This shift has led to a new wave of fashion that is more refined and elegant, reflecting the tastes of a more discerning audience.

Alex Ho Maxwell keeps it simple—despite the silver spoon

Alex Ho Maxwell, 32, is a tech executive who has built a successful career for himself. Despite his wealth, he keeps his wedding simple. He and his wife, Sarah, 31, got married in a ceremony at the Fairmont Hotel in Toronto. The couple, who have been together for five years, are expecting their first child in the fall. Maxwell, who works in the tech industry, and his wife, who is a graphic designer, are both from Toronto.

How to get that perfect tan

How to create a natural fold for those 'chinkie' eyes

For those who want to create a natural fold for their eyes, there are several techniques that can be used. One of the most common is the use of eyelid surgery, which can help to create a more defined fold. Another technique is the use of eyelid tape, which can be applied to the eyelid to create a fold. Both techniques can be used to create a more defined fold, which can help to make the eyes appear more open and alert.
